3. Pray for strength and guidance as we visit many churches and individuals.
4. Pray for us to reach full support so we can return to the field.

Kornbau Newsletter November 2020

Psalm 96:11-12 "Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof. Let the field be joyful, and all that is therein: then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice."

I have had the privilege of traveling around the New England states and enjoying God's creation as I share God's call to Ireland. God has truly made a beautiful world! In this time of turmoil and trouble, may we as believers focus on God and His power and love to us. I want to encourage you to keep looking to God no matter what may come. Our faith is not in government or man, our hope is in the Lord! So let's take some time to praise the Lord for His power and working in our lives.

One of my greatest joys while traveling around is when someone comes up to me and asks, "How do I know God's will for me?" I get asked this question regularly and it blesses me to be able to help someone discern God's leading in their life. It also tells me that this person has a desire to please God and do His bidding. My prayer is that many will be called as missionaries to serve God throughout the world. Another joy of mine is to meet so many people in different parts of our country that love God and want to serve Him. It reminds me that there are still many in this world who love God and want to please Him. May our lives bring praise and worship to our God.

We want to wish both you and your family a very Happy Thanksgiving! May God bless you and strengthen you.

In Christ,
John Kornbau

Financial Update

I wanted to thank so many of you for responding to our recent newsletter sharing our financial needs. We have received from many of you gifts. What a beautiful outpouring of God's love by the people of God! We have had individuals join our partnership team, some increase their current commitment, and I found out today, we gained a new supporting church! We are now at 80% support or approximately $1300 a month needed. A huge thank you for praying and giving!
