The Call

We would have never imagined what God had planned for us this year but His ways are always better than our own. I was “fighting” God on a heating system that I thought we needed to install. When I finally gave in to God on that, God showed me that he wanted us to go to Ireland.

In August 2014, Kelly & I went on vacation to Ireland and loved our time there. We were trying to figure out when we could get back to tour the country again. God had different plans for us. This fall I began feeling unrest in my heart and kept telling Kelly that I thought that God was getting ready to move us on. God began to work in our hearts separately this fall and began to give us a desire to leave the United States and become missionaries to Ireland.

We began to pray hard and seek wise counsel from friends and family members. God began to show us through the Bible, friends, circumstances, finances, and other means that He wanted us to go. So in early October, we applied to become missionaries with Bible Centered Ministries (BCM). We received approval in mid-November with BCM International and in January received our official invitation from BCM Ireland to go and serve with them.

Our Pastor—John Banks

“John and Kelly put their energy into serving wherever they believe God is calling them with joy. I have observed John serving with diligence in the areas of Sunday School Superintendent. I found him to be reliable and conscientious.

I have observed John as a co-laborer in the gospel through our church’s partnership with CEF of Eastern PA, in particular Wayne-Pike Counties. John is noticeably gifted in working with children and youth.

I highly recommend that you give John and Kelly Kornbau the opportunity to share what God is doing in their lives, and their vision for the Republic of Ireland.”

BCM Ireland Director-Richard Thompson

“In the past, we have had many regular Bible clubs around the country, reaching hundreds of children each week. However, as time has moved on, many of the missionaries have retired or moved home, meaning that many of these clubs no longer exist, but the need continues to increase. We depend on many volunteers. There is a great need however to have more “Fulltime Missionaries” to run regular clubs and camps and to organise and lead the volunteers, giving them the support that they need.

With all this in mind it was such an encouragement when we heard from John and Kelly regarding their call to Ireland. They have visited us here and from talking and sharing with them we believe that in their answering God’s call many more here will be reached. To have someone with John and Kelly’s experience and leadership ability, particularly in children and young people’s ministries come and focus on reviving our clubs and establishing new ones is such an answer to prayer.”
